Collect of the Day

O Lord, let the world be ordered in peace, according to your will: that your people may be free to worship you with joy; through Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, world without end. Amen

Today's Readings:

Genesis 24.34-38, 42-49, 58-end; Psalm 45.10-17; Romans 7.15-25a; Matthew 11.16-19, 25-46

Prayer after Communion

O God, may we who have shared in holy things never fail to serve you in your world, and so come to the fullness of joy, in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord Amen.

Psalm 13

10 Hear, O daughter; consider and incline your ear; forget your own people and your father's house.

11 So shall the king have pleasure in your beauty; he is your lord, so do him honour.

12 The people of Tyre shall bring you gifts; the richest of the people shall seek your favour.

13 The king's daughter is all glorious within; her clothing is embroidered cloth of gold.

14 She shall be brought to the king in raiment of needlework; after her the virgins that are her companions.

15 With joy and gladness shall they be brought and enter into the palace of the king.

16 Instead of your fathers you shall have sons whom you shall make princes over all the land.

17 I will make your name to be remembered through all generations; therefore shall the peoples praise you for ever and ever.'

All: Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost; as it was in the beginning is now and shall be for evermore. Amen.

Prayer of Humble Access

(which may be said at Communion)

We do not presume to come to this thy table, O merciful Lord, trusting in our own righteousness, but in thy manifold and great mercies. We are not worthy so much as to gather up the crumbs under thy table. But thou art the same Lord, whose property is always to have mercy: grant us therefore, gracious Lord, so to eat the flesh of thy dear Son Jesus Christ, and to drink his blood, that our sinful bodies may be made clean by his body, and our souls washed through his most precious blood, and that we may evermore dwell in him. Amen
